

“El Sol Brilla Para los Animalitos”

A Father-Daughter Dance

Hey Puesta dads! It's time to get your groove on, boogie down, and shake, shake, shake, shake, shake, shake, shake your---well, you get the point. Time flies when you're having fun, so take advantage of this opportunity to have your daughter all to yourself for an evening while you still can! Get your Father's Day weekend off to a great start by taking her to Puesta del Sol's fifth annual father-daughter dance. “El Sol Brilla Para Los Animalitos” (The Sun Shines for the Little Animals) is an event to benefit the stray and unwanted animals of Seattle Humane Society. All you have to do is bring a donation of cat or dog food and/or your old cell phones. You will not only create a special memory for you and your daughter, but you'll be joining forces with other Puesta dads to make a difference for some local animals in need, (and be your daughter's hero which is always a plus ;).

- ¿Para Quién?: Any dad and his 4th or 5th grade daughter who is a current student at Puesta del Sol
- ¿Dónde?: Puesta del Sol Cafegymatorium
- ¿Cuándo?: Friday, June 15, 7:00-8:30pm
- ¿Por qué?: To benefit the stray and unwanted animals of Seattle Humane Society and make a special memory with your daughter
- Otra cosa: Don't forget your phone/camera!

Volunteers are welcome to help out before, during, or after the dance. Please contact Sr. Mattson if interested: kjellandclaudia@netzero.net
