

“Viva el español”

K-5 Spanish Immersion Summer Camp
with Sra. Delia & Sra. Forbes

Fun and learning en español!

Summer 2016: New camp activities for returning students!

CAMP DESCRIPTION

During this camp, children will learn about the world through engaging projects that reflect cultural and artistic diversity. Children will participate in fun and engaging activities that include art projects, games, dance, singing, and fun...all in the Spanish language, of course! Children will also participate in educational activities that will help them develop their Spanish language and academic skills during the summer.

By participating in this program, your child will:

- Build on their Spanish language skills through a variety of engaging activities
- Strengthen academic skills in reading, writing, and math
- Experience cultures and traditions from around the world
- Engage in fun and creative art projects
